Hanoi Power Plant Struck, One Jet Lost

SAIGON (AP) — Jet warplanes from three U.S. aircraft carriers bombed an electric plant in Hanoi today in addition to targets on the city's outskirts. One plane was lost, U.S. spokesmen said.

The planes, from the Constellation, Bon Homme Richard and Enterprise, flew through a hail of groundfire from the defense network known as the "Iron Triangle." The Communist air force offered no battle although raids were successful, a headquarters spokesman said.

One Navy F8 Crusader was shot down by the heavy Communist fire, the spokesman said. The pilot is missing.

The Soviet news agency Tass reported from Hanoi that three U.S. planes were downed.

Follow Mortar Attack

The raids against the heartland of North Vietnam followed hard on the heels of a bloody Communist mortar attack earlier today against five U.S. and South Vietnamese installations around Pleiku. The attacks left 26 dead, including two Americans, and 121 wounded.

The bombed thermal power plant is only 1.1 miles from Hanoi's geographic center. The power plant has been raided twice before.

The Crusader was the 578th plane reported downed over North Vietnam.

Canvassers To Settle Daylight Time Issue Monday

LANSING (AP) — The Board of State Canvassers will meet Monday to decide if Michigan must jump its clocks ahead an hour to Daylight Saving Time.

The State Supreme Court Friday passed the hot time issue back into the hands of the canvassers.

Seven court members were unanimous in lifting a previous order preventing the canvassers from passing on the validity of petitions seeking to put the Daylight Saving Time issue on the November 1968 election ballot.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley has ruled that the instant the canvassers certify the petitions as valid, the state automatically must go on Eastern Daylight Time.

Certifying the question for the ballot, Kelley ruled, will suspend the law exempting Michigan from federal Daylight Time. Michigan was exempted by a measure passed by the Legislature and signed by the governor earlier this year.

Mrs. Esther Waite of East Lansing, Canvassers Board chairman, said she and State Election Director Robert Montgomery tried in vain Friday night to round up a quorum of the board to meet and make a decision today.

Other members of the bipartisan board are Mrs. Zoe Burkholz of Benton Harbor, Alfred Fortino of St. Louis and Nathan Conyers of Detroit, newly appointed by Gov. George Romney.

Mrs. Waite said she could make no prediction how, or how soon, the board would act.

"Our job now is to pass on the validity and sufficiency of the petitions," she said.

Montgomery previously had told the board that, in his judgment, the petitions were in proper form and contained enough valid signatures.

"If the board certifies the issue for the ballot, we want to make as smooth a time transition as possible," Mrs. Waite said.

"If necessary, we'll wait around until midnight to give the final stamp of approval to the petitions."

Meanwhile, there were indications that Daylight Time opponents still might try some last minute, stop-the-clock illegal roadblocks.

"The bug game isn't over yet," insisted attorney Tom Downs. Downs represents the Michigan Farm Bureau and the bowling alley and theater interests who oppose certification of the petitions.

Downs said because there were so many federally-related issues involved, he might have the right to appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

He also said he plans to argue against validity of the petitions when the canvassers meet.

Spencer Tracy, Hollywood Idol, Stricken, Dies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Spencer Tracy, 67, whose rough-hewn face and forceful manner personified the American man of action in scores of movie roles, died today.

A spokesman said Tracy died of a heart attack early today. He was pronounced dead by Dr. Mitchell Corvell.

Tracy's career, which brought him two Academy Awards and eight nominations more than any other actor, began on the stage in 1922.

His chain of memorable roles included a Portuguese fisherman in "Captains Courageous," which brought him an Oscar in 1937, and Father Flanagan in "Boys Town," for which he won a second Oscar in 1938.

For thousands of movie fans, Tracy remained the lovable Father Flanagan or, matured and more worldly, the Maine jurist in "Judgment at Nuremberg," the Clarence Darrow-like attorney in "Inherit the Wind" or the befuddled father in "Father of the Bride." He was one of the stars of the golden days at Metro-Goldwyn - Mayer Studios in the late 1930s and 1940s, along with Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Greer Garson, Robert Taylor, Katharine Hepburn and others. Miss Hepburn became his lifelong friend.

But to his friends and associates, Tracy was a complex man who would shut himself up for days in his Beverly Hills home or disappear for weeks from a movie set.

Some attributed it to his long-time estrangement from his wife, the former actress Louise Treadwell, or his sorrow over the congenital deafness of his son, John.

Syria, Israel Continue War Despite Cease-Fire Orders

Cardinal Ritter

Cardinal Dies At St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Joseph Cardinal Ritter, archbishop of St. Louis since 1946, died today. He was 74.

A spokesman for the St. Louis Archdiocese reported that his doctor said death came peacefully at 5:47 a.m.

The cardinal had suffered two heart attacks since entering DePaul Hospital Monday.

He was named St. Louis' second Roman Catholic cardinal in 1960 by Pope John XXIII.

As archbishop of St. Louis, Cardinal Ritter ordered the racial integration of Catholic parochial schools under his control in 1947. Threats of law suits by a small group of Catholics were abandoned after the cardinal promised immediate excommunication for those bringing the suits.

A native of New Albany, Ind., Cardinal Ritter attended St. Meinrad's seminary in southern Indiana. He was ordained in 1917 and became the first archbishop of Indianapolis in 1944 when Pope Pius XII raised the Indianapolis see to an archdiocese.

The prelate recently observed the 50th anniversary of his ordination.

Forces Penetrate Deep Into Syria

By The Associated Press

U. N. observers reported Israeli troops and planes struck deep into Syria today. An AP dispatch from the Sea of Galilee area said Israeli forces had silenced Syrian artillery in hills which Israel claims have been the springboards for attacks on Israeli settlements for 19 years.

A Cairo radio broadcast said Israeli planes bombed and sank several ships in the Suez Canal Friday, obstructing all navigation. Egypt ordered it closed earlier in the week, saying it feared Israel would attack ships in the canal and block it for months. There was no confirmation of the Egyptian broadcast and no explanation for the presence of ships unless they were in the canal at the time it closed. Israel earlier denied Egyptian claims of bombings Friday.

AP Correspondent Hans Benedict, with Israeli troops inside Syria, reported that a large Israeli force had begun closing pincers on Syrian troops in the border area and had devastated Syrian gun positions.

U.N. observers said Israeli warplanes attacked three times in the outskirts of Damascus, but not in the Syrian capital itself.

The observers also reported troops in the vicinity of Damascus.

Despite agreements from both capitals to a U.N. call for a cease-fire, AP dispatches from the Syrian-Israeli border reported exchanges of artillery barrages and Israeli air attacks on Syrian gun positions. Each nation accused the other of violating the agreement.

The Communist-bloc countries, meanwhile met in Moscow and vowed to go to the aid of the Arab nations if "Israel does not stop the aggression and withdraw its troops behind the 1948-49 truce lines."

The Soviet Union, which saw Arab armies equipped with $4 billion in Soviet aid fall quickly to the Israelis, was rallying its Communist brothers in demanding that Israel give up gains made in the war.

These included Jordanian cities of religious significance to the Jews and Egyptian territory of strategic significance, such as Sharm el Sheikh, where Nasser tried to block Israeli shipping into the Gulf of Aqaba. There was no sign Israel would surrender them.

At the call of Syria, which charged continuing aggression by Israel, the U.N. Security Council went into a 4:32 a.m. meeting. Earlier, the Soviet Union pressed a request upon Secretary-General U Thant to contact U.N. observers near the Syrian-Israeli fighting and report to the council.

Freed To Fight

An Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv declined comment on all Syrian reports of fighting.

The Syrian government announced it was freeing political prisoners to aid in defense. There are scores of them in the politically unstable nation, including Gen. Amin Bafez, former strongman ousted in a coup of February 1966, and his one-time defense minister, Gen. Mohammed Omran.

It was on the Syrian-Israeli border that the Middle East crisis began a month ago. After Syrian-supported raids into Israel and Israeli threats of reprisals, Nasser moved 80,000 troops into the Sinai Peninsula facing the frontier of the Jewish nation. If Israel started war, he said then, the Arabs would set out to crush that nation which was carved out of Palestinian land in the 1948-49 war.

Plan Cited

In what he called a farewell speech Friday, Nasser said he acted because "there was a plan by the enemy to invade Syria. There was ample evidence of this. Our friends in the Soviet Union informed a parliamentary delegation visiting Moscow that there was a scheme against Syria."

After Nasser said he would step down, thousands of Egyptians shouting "Nasser! Nasser!" crowded around the president's home, urging him to keep his job. Cairo radio then came on with a statement from Nasser that it was up to the National Assembly.

The Assembly also said stay and added "What has been accomplished recently on the national, Arab, international level is a picture so dignified that no setback can affect it. It is a picture that can be completed under your leadership."

Blackout Lifted

On fronts other than Syria, Israeli troops showed confidence by allowing Arabs in Gaza City, Egypt, to walk the streets Friday for the first time since they captured it in fierce fighting Tuesday. Some sniper fire still was reported.

Egypt claimed Cairo had been bombed Friday but Israel denied its planes were over the city. Reporters there saw none.

The Communist statement promising a "resolute rebuff" if Israel does not withdraw behind the 1948-49 truce lines was signed by the party leaders and government heads of Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Hungary, Poland, the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia.

Gamel Abdul Nasser

Nasser Stays As President

CAIRO (AP) — Gamel Abdel Nasser advised the Egyptian National Assembly today he is bowing to "the will of the people and will stay on as president of the United Arab Republic."

Nasser said he would stick to the post until Egypt "erased all traces of aggression."

Deputies jumped from their seats and roared approval as Speaker Anwar Sadat announced the news of the Arab leader's decision to a special session of the Assembly.

Sadat said Nasser was unable to make the announcement himself because huge crowds shouting for his return to power were blocking his way to the Assembly building.

"We do not accept anybody, but Nasser as our leader," the speaker told the assembly, repeating a slogan that had echoed through the canyons of metropolitan Cairo all night long.

In a message read by the speaker to the 360-man Assembly, Nasser said: "The voice of the masses is an order that cannot be disobeyed. Therefore I decided to stay in my place."

"I will stay in the post where the people want me to be until the time when we will be able to erase all traces of aggression. But after that period the decision should be made in a general plebiscite."

After Nasser said he would step down, thousands of Egyptians shouting "Nasser! Nasser!" crowded around the president's home, urging him to keep his job. Cairo radio then came on with a statement from Nasser that it was up to the National Assembly.

Israel Agrees To Cease-Fire At U. N. Meeting

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Israel reported to the Security Council today that Gen. Moshe Dayan, its defense minister, had agreed to accept any hour for a cease-fire set by the United Nations in consultation with Syria to halt that phase of the Middle East war.

The word came to 15-nation council as it received reports also of deep penetration into Syria by Israeli troops and Israeli air attacks around the capital of Damascus.

Later Secretary-General U Thant said the U.N. truce chief had fixed 12:30 p.m. EDT as the hour for ending hostilities.

Israeli ambassador Gideon Rafael gave the council a report on a meeting in Tel Aviv between Dayan and Lt. Gen. Odd Bull, head of the U.N. Palestine Truce Supervision Organization.

Rafael said Gen. Bull will establish contact with the Syrians on the hour to be set, and that Israel would provide him with the necessary assistance in his way of communications and transport.

The reports from U.N. observers in Syria reached the council piecemeal during a meeting that began before dawn in an effort to bring an end to Middle East hostilities.

The Soviet Union, after breaking relations with Israel, warned the council it must halt what the Russians consider Israeli aggression or face "an extremely serious situation."

The Soviet Union sought condemnation of Israel by the 15-nation council.

Arms Shipments May Be Sliced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Foreign Relations Committee members, expressing hope the Middle East crisis will spur cuts in arms shipments to the turbulent area, indicate the panel may offer proposals along that line.

Disarmament was among the major topics committee members raised Friday with Secretary of State Dean Rusk at a two-hour, private meeting on the Middle East situation.

Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., commented later, "I'm not very strong on continuing military armaments" shipments to the area.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said he thought defeat of Arab countries which had received military supplies from the Soviet Union might have created a climate favorable to a U.S.-Soviet agreement to curtail arms shipments.

He said Soviet leaders found they had "poured $2 billion down a rat hole" in arming the Arab nations.

Rusk commented he was hopeful some kind of Middle East arms ceiling could be worked out.

But he refused to discuss with newsmen complaints from Clark that the administration was not paying enough attention to disarmament as part of its approach to the Middle East.

Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., also a Foreign Relations Committee member, proposed that the United States "take advantage of existing conditions to work out with all concerned either a disarmament or an arms control program for the area."

Medical Profession Tackles Bargaining

Two challenges that face organized medicine overshadow all others, Dr. C. Allen Payne, of Grand Rapids, president of the Michigan State Medical Society, told the Upper Peninsula Medical Society at its 74th annual convention luncheon in the House of Ludington, Friday.

They are:

1. The need for more medical manpower; not only physicians, but paramedical personnel needed to complete the medical team.
2. The federal government employs 28,000 doctors, a greater number than are serving the public in 26 states, "so although more doctors are being trained," said Dr. Payne "more are going into administration where they don't care for patients."

"The Michigan State Medical Society is trying to influence the Legislature and is cooperating with medical education to train more doctors and para-medical personnel."

Medical Gap

2. The need for more effective, continuing medical education. Changes in (graduate) medical education are not profound enough to keep pace with medical knowledge and with the public expectations of medical services and competence.

"The doctor will have to be a student throughout life," said Dr. Payne. "The Michigan State Medical Society has a continuing concern with keeping abreast of knowledge and the increasing patient load. Conferences like this one are helpful in closing this medical gap."

Dr. Andrew Hunt, dean of the Michigan State University College of Human Medicine, introduced by Dr. Francis Anderson, of Escanaba called the U.P. Medical Society program "superb." He said MSU is now in the first year of a planned four year medical course to provide doctors who will:

1. Heal the sick of Michigan in community or family practice of medicine.
2. Meet the serious shortage of competent health officers.
3. Meet the shortage of teachers of academic medicine.

The college, he said, doesn't aspire to medical specialties at this time and its faculty has been recruited with these objectives in mind. MSU has always been ruraly oriented as a land grant college and so it has a special interest in bringing medical care to the Upper Peninsula, said Dr. Hunt.

The MSU College of Medicine has associated itself with the Copper Country Health and Welfare Council in a project of medical education in the six western U.P. counties and will send two medical students and some nursing personnel to the district this summer to begin "to identify MSU with the medical problems of the Upper Peninsula."

Bargaining Agency

"The whole problem of education of people in general practice of medicine is of great concern to us and very confusing," said Dr. Hunt. "It can't all be done by the medical schools. The communities should participate in the effort."

Hugh Brennenman, East Lansing, executive director of the Michigan State Medical Society, told the physicians that they face a serious problem in organizing their profession for collective bargaining with the government; that they are not well organized for it now and that they should organize.

"There is a question whether the County Medical Societies, the Michigan State Medical Society and the American Medical Society can meet the challenges of the future in collective representation," Brennenman said. Some persons think that the county medical societies (foundation structure of the medical organization) can't do the job and that we must reorganize along hospital staff lines. The profession has to have a bargaining agent; this is a step toward collective representation by the county, state and national medical societies.

Profession's Weaknesses

"We have two weaknesses: 1. We are not experts in collective bargaining. 2. We don't have the facts to do the job. There are questions of fact in the minds of men who make the decisions, so decisions tend to be emotional."

"These relations are more sophisticated than those of industrial management and labor. Doctors can't strike and they don't know how to apply sanctions. Government agencies have an impact on your practice."

"The general thinking in the profession is that the county, state and national medical societies are the best answer to this need, but that they need a research institute."

Dr. John Wellman of Michigan Blue Shield (the doctor bill insurance plan) said "We've been asked if Medicare and Medicaid payment is slow because of lack of funds? The answer is no. There have been technical problems and I think the major ones have been overcome. We hired new help and had to train it. In Medicaid we had a problem of coordinating eligibility for the records between counties and state and compatibility with our computer program."

Industrial Gain Told By Lewke

Four companies have indicated an interest in Escanaba Foundation land at the north entrance to the city which could develop the area into an industrial complex within a few years, Walter Lewke, manager, told directors of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce Friday.

Northern Motor Rebuilders, Inc., has begun erection of United Parcel Service is completing negotiations for a facility and two local firms are planning construction in the area next year.

The membership application of Escanaba Auto-Home Decorators, Paul Peterson, was accepted.

The Retail Division, Ralph Zenker, chairman, completed plans for its June Moonlight Madness sale. Churches and organizations are invited to have bake sales and other middle-of-the-street displays for the July 26 Sidewalk Day event. Aaron Stein and Roger Jenshak are co-chairmen.

The Chamber will host lieutenants and their wives from the base on K. I. Sawyer Day, Saturday, June 24, with Mrs. Lois Thompson, chairman of the Military Affairs committee, in charge of arrangements.

The Board commended Dean Abbott, for his years of service to the Retail Division, to the Chamber and the community. Abbott will leave July 1 for Sioux Falls, S. D., to be retail director of the Chamber of Commerce.

Richard Marenger, and George Bathke reported that the Delta County Agricultural Booster Association was again awarding two scholarship to Bay de Noc Community College to a Delta County boy and girl whose parents are in farming and who are in need of financial assistance. The committee is also planning a tour of Christmas tree farms, milk ranches and soil conservation ponds in the Delta County area.

The second annual U. P. Citizenship Seminar will be held at the Holy Name High School on July 12 and 13 and is co-sponsored by the Chamber and Upper Michigan County Farm Bureaus. The banquet speaker this year will be Charles H. Horch, manufacturing manager of Mead Corp., Chillicothe.

The committee working on the downtown parking project has obtained 90 percent participation of merchants and property owners to date, Lewke reported, and the board was advised that the completion of the project seems to be a certainty.

The Board unanimously endorsed the millage proposal of Bay de Noc Community College to be voted on June 26.

Pastor's Life Is Subject Of Book By Pastor Nelson

E. K. Jonson was a "character" in the finest use of the word, and the Rev. Alfred E. Nelson of Escanaba tells about him in the book "Chicago's Parson" recently published by Pageant Press, New York City.

"A great deal of the color of yesterday will soon be forgotten. Few will remember the amazing characters who fanned the flames for right, fought battles against sins and vices, and brought endless comfort to countless souls," writes the Rev. Nelson in his forward.

But the Rev. E. K. Jonson will be discovered by many and will be long remembered thanks to Rev. Nelson's insight that helps reveal the character of an extraordinary man.

"On the sidewalks of Chicago's Clark Street, north of Foster Ave., adults and children called him 'Kyrkoherde', meaning pastor, or rector."

Meet The Author

A coffee party in the Swedish tradition, which will give the public the opportunity to meet the Rev. Alfred Nelson, author of "Chicago's Parson," will be held in the Bethany Lutheran Church fellowship room from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, June 16. The Rev. Nelson will also at that time autograph copies of his book.

found influences among the people of his parishes in the Lutheran Church and his own courage and independence.

He was a man of strong opinions. Of pre-marriage counseling he said:

"What can you say to two turtle doves who are in love and have all the answers?"

Clark Street tavern operators offered to give an attractive outdoor bulletin board to the church.

"Are we going to let the devil perch on the front yard of our church? Never!"

"Tied In Sin"

Speaking of good habits, he said:

"The most beautiful sight on earth is not the green mountains, the golden sun, the starry sky, or the roaring cataract, but a young life that remains free and clean from bad habits."

Of the Swedish custom of making much of Christmas and the good things attending it, he commented to his congregation at Christmastime:

"You are filled and crammed full of unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness, full of envy, deceit, gossip, pride, and self-conceit. Like potato bologna, you are filled to the top and tied in sin at both ends."

During the closing years of his ministry there was a strong move toward vestments for the clergy, the author reports. Dr. Jonson called it an evolution of display and said that when the time came for Lutheran pastors to deck themselves in the chasuble, "Ringling Brothers would be out of business."

Humor And Sympathy

To student pastors he would say: "You cannot have mush in the mouth if you are going to be a good preacher. Speak up, young man."

The cleric at the age of 50 suffered loss of vision and he at first refused to wear glasses.

Scott To Head Scout Canvass

Donald Scott of 702 S. 12th St., has been named chairman for the general teams sections of the Hiawathaland Council Boy Scout camp development campaign.

The announcement of Scott's appointment and acceptance of the position was made by Gary Barton, Red Buck district chairman for the drive.

Scott will be responsible for appointing committee chairman to head the general canvass teams which will contact area businessmen. The Red Buck district includes Delta and Schoolcraft counties and part of Menominee County.

Barton said he hopes to have the Red Buck part of the drive completed by July 15.

"The campaign is going very well," he continued. "There's no reason we can't be finished by then."

Hiawathaland Council, which includes all of the Upper Peninsula and part of northern Wisconsin, is attempting to raise $250,000 for a new scout camp. A 345-acre site in Alger County has been chosen for the new camp. Camp Red Buck, which formerly served scouts of the area, has been refused relicensing by state health authorities due to inadequate and run-down facilities.

Wallace's Talk Draws Interest

The scheduled appearance in Escanaba of former Gov. George Wallace of Alabama on Saturday, June 17, has aroused interest among persons hundreds of miles away, according to the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce.

Letters from those who would like to come to Escanaba and hear Wallace have been received from Lower Michigan and Wisconsin, it is reported by Walter Lewke, Chamber manager.

H. W. Hughes of Grand Rapids asked: "Will you please let me know the time and date of the speech? I am a Wallace fan and would like to hear him."

Agnes and Harry Allman of Battle Creek asked the Chamber of Commerce to whom they should write "for reservations to hear George Wallace speak, if it not restricted to Legion members. We need four reservations."

James A. Bouche of Luxemburg, Wis., asks if tickets are available and indicates his interest in hearing Wallace.

Tickets for the Saturday night banquet meeting of the U.P. Legion Convention in the Area Public High School commons where Wallace will speak may be obtained at:

Showing Our Best

Five hundred European travel agents and journalists came to the United States last fall for a two week trip across the nation to see — free-of-charge — what America is really like. The plan, of course, was to impress them and increase American travel by Europeans through their reports to the folks back home.

The Europeans divided into groups of 40 or 50 and went their separate ways to get a true picture of the United States by staying at comfortable hotels and motels and eating at good restaurants, but not just top shelf establishments.

The Europeans were impressed by the size of America. Anyone who has traveled in Europe will understand that. Their countries are more like our states. But they weren't enthralled by everything American. They thought our central heating was "too much heat," and they were amazed by things like the sign in Arlington National Cemetery: "No picnicking in the cemetery."

Among the more durable memories which our guests took back to Europe were things like the folk singing in Denver, restored great old homes in Philadelphia, and especially the friendliness of Americans everywhere.

The reactions of the Europeans were helpful to American travel specialists in shaping our national image to create more travel business abroad. The experiment is a reminder that the Upper Peninsula doesn't shape its image for tourists with a view to what they'd like. We're apt to offer them what we think they would like, or what we like, or what we think they should have, or what we've got a lot of and don't know what else to do with.

We've had a lot of surveys, of course; we've surveyed everything in the Upper Peninsula — repeatedly — except the influence of moon melt on skunk tracks in the snow in April — but we haven't acted on the surveys. They show that rural roadside attraction is one of the things that city tourists like best.

But we try to outdo the cities in billboard array. We don't do it as well as the big cities and we don't keep them fresh and the city people who don't mind an acre of advertising for Old Rover on the glue works aren't so happy about it when it cuts off the view of the Cut River Valley or Big Basswood Hill, of cotton grass in bloom or a ridge of staghorn sumac in fall scarlet.

We have more to sell the tourist than we do the industrialist, but we'll spend all kinds of effort to convince a manufacturer of whidgits that he can make money in a plant at Trenary and we won't lift a finger to prevent the destruction of the beauty that can make the peninsula's future as a recreation area.

We shouldn't regard ourselves as an extension of industrial Lower Michigan, but as a unique and beautiful area which offers big city people a change from metropolitan congestion, pollution, population, and crush. Our woodland vistas are a great resource.

We are finally getting around in America to valuing purity of our air and waters and hopefully the next gift of our evolution will be a new awareness in esthetics, so that our own lives will be enriched by the preservation of the beauty around us and also by the cash it brings from persons who come from afar to enjoy it with us.

Park Fee Error

The Michigan State Senate has erred in voting passage, 25-9, of a stiff increase in entrance fees for state parks.

The increase is needed. People who use the parks' camping facilities are willing to pay more for assured availability of adequate facilities. To pay less and take poor pot luck on overcrowded facilities is no economy.

Our objection is the proposed Michigan discrimination against tourist visitors from other states who want to use our parks. Under the proposed increases they would pay $2 for a day permit and $5 for a season permit. The fees are now 50 cents a day and $2 a year. State residents would pay an increased fee of $1 a day and $3 a year.

For a state that wants visitors, we have an odd way of showing it. Wisconsin is taking its tax off oleo because so many states have erected a barrier to exported Wisconsin milk, but Michigan is putting a tax on tourists. It's discriminatory and foolish and tourists don't have to come here to pay it. They haven't been coming in desirable numbers, preferring other areas, and now we add this lure: Come and be discriminated against!

The average homeowner curses the grass when it doesn't grow and hates it when it does.

It's fine to pay the unemployed an assured annual salary for doing nothing. But how's the poor guy ever going to get a merit raise?

Newspaper Want Ads are a big sell! One billion, twenty-one million was spent on classified ads last year . . . more than for all magazine advertising combined and more than 300 million more than radio advertising.

Lawrence J. Cleary and Harold J. Cleary, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cleary of Escanaba, will graduate from the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind. Each received a degree in mechanical engineering. Both of the young men made creditable records at the University and graduated with honors among the highest in their class.

At his inauguration in January 1963, Gov. Wallace made a pledge: "I draw the line in the dust and toss the gauntlet before the feet of tyranny and I say segregation now, segregation tomorrow, segregation forever . . ." By this philosophy, Mr. Wallace has gained a prominence which apparently has made him a sought-after speaker.

We could hope that from the platform which his prominence has gained for him, there might come some gauntlets thrown at the feet of race discrimination and injustice. Lacking that, we will do well to hear him. And we will consider where his kind of spirit would lead us in a time when men of all colors are struggling for the freedoms which belong to no man by virtue of the color of his skin.

Real Economy Possible With Food Choices

EAST LANSING — If homemakers are really serious about saving as much as 25 per cent on their food budget, it can be done, advises Mrs. Anita Dean, extension specialist in foods and nutrition at Michigan State University.

The basic food groups contain products that can cut food costs considerably. But, she cautions to avoid possibly cutting recommended amounts of nutrients needed for a basic diet at the same time. But a wise, careful shopper can plan her meals around this low cost budget and still maintain adequate nutrition.

Mrs. Dean says these "lower-than-low-cost" choices would be limited to the following:

Dairy products — only non-fat dry milk and cheese.

Meat — stew beef, ground beef, salt pork, sausage, chicken and fish.

Beans and nuts — dry beans and peanut butter.

Flour and cereals — large proportion of flour and cornmeal; only cooked cereals, not the ready-to-eat kind; some rice, macaroni products, bread, and crackers.

Fruits — canned orange juice, some fresh oranges, bananas, fresh and canned apples, fruit juices and dried prunes.

Potatoes — fresh only, no processed.

Vegetables — sweet potatoes, carrots, cabbage, onions, corn and canned tomatoes.

Fats — margarine, lard and salad dressings.

Sweets — sugar, syrup and jelly; no soft drinks.

Accessories — only a few seasonings.

"Many families would have to adjust their eating habits greatly to consider economizing to this extent," Mrs. Dean says, "but this low cost food plan does provide some room for variety, if selections are made within the limits noted to obtain the desired food costs reductions. The greatest money savers lie in the substitution of nonfat dry milk for fluid milk and the use of less costly meat items."

Future Danish Queen, French Aristocrat Speak Vows Today

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Today is the day a pretty Danish princess marries a young French aristocrat in what she had hoped would be "a normal Danish wedding."

The bride is Princess Margrethe, 27, the future queen of Denmark. She is the eldest of three daughters born to King Frederick IX, 68, and Princess Ingrid of Sweden.

The bridegroom is Count Henri de Laborde de Monpezat, a handsome French ex-diplomat. A former Roman Catholic, he became Lutheran to become the prince consort of Denmark. He will be 33 Sunday.

Bishop Erik Jensen, who accepted the bridegroom into the Danish Lutheran Church, the established state church since 1536, will marry the couple in a small portside church.

Among the 400 guests expected to attend are all the crowned heads of Europe, except Queen Elizabeth II of England and King Constantine of Greece. The Greek monarch is staying home to avoid possible demonstrations in Copenhagen against the new Greek military regime.

Most of the 4.5 million Danes will watch the wedding on television. But at least 150,000 of them plus 10,000 tourists are expected to line the winding streets of downtown Copenhagen to see the bridal couple drive from the church to Fredensborg Castle, where a gala dinner is to be staged in a huge tent.

"It is no secret that the royal bride wants the wedding to be held as most Danish weddings go," said Bishop Jensen. And in some ways it will be normal.

The wedding rites will be the same as for all other Danish weddings, according to a royal decree issued 55 years ago by Margrethe's grandfather, King Christian X.

Asked if Count Henri would reply in French when asked to say "I do," Bishop Jensen replied: "No. This is a Danish wedding. Danish will be spoken."

Also, the bride will not be asked to "obey" her husband. This is not because of her rank but because the church abolished the part of the rite several years ago to further the emancipation of Danish women.

Fourteen years ago the emancipation process made way for a new rule allowing princesses to become reigning queens — opening the throne to Margrethe.

At midnight Friday Count Henri formally changed his nationality to Danish, a precondition for marriage to the heiress to the throne.

Another change comes during the ceremony, when he changes his name from Henri to the old Danish "Henrik" and his title from count to prince of Denmark.

When does this change occur?

The bishop was asked. "One would think it's when he says 'I do,'" the bishop said, "but legally this is not so. It's when the princess says it."

Copper Country Picnic Planned For June 18

The 4th annual Copper Country picnic will be held Father's Day, June 18 at Ludington Park beginning at 1 p.m. Parties by Mrs. Clarence Moyle will again be featured and orders must be placed with William Coon early on the day of the picnic.

Congressman Philip Ruppe and his wife will be the guests of the day. There will be games and prizes for the children and refreshments for the adults. This annual affair began here four years ago with only a handful of people attending and last year several hundred were present. The committee is hoping for another fine turnout this year.

The Touch Of Time

What marvelous buildings has man erected through the centuries. What lofty and inspiring structures has he created.

But how many of these glorious accomplishments stand intact today? We can see famous ruins the world over — mute reminders that what man builds is not permanent.

Today our buildings contain great slabs of concrete holding hidden wire and steel that will not break with stress. But can we be sure that today's creations will be standing a hundred years or two hundred years from now? Of course not.

Of what can we be certain? What does last?

Certainly the gifts of God tower indestructibly today as they have for generations... the things of the spirit — faith, hope and love. Our church buildings may crumble or be destroyed, but the faith of believers is perpetual throughout the ages.

Discover for yourself the great spiritual truths. Discover for yourself through His Church, those things which endure forever.

Even Brunet Can't Understand His Hex Over Detroit Tigers

In This Corner with Ray Crandall

Rebirth of the Waubung Baseball League in this area is an encouraging sign. . . . These are days of decreased interest in such old time sports favorites as softball and baseball. . . . The Escanaba Softball Association has great difficulty in keeping its head above water, with only a solid junior program likely to keep the sport alive in the future.

Last year the area interest in baseball for youngsters almost disappeared. . . . The Waubung League, which had operated annually since 1947, folded because there were only three active teams in the area. . . . Escanaba, Manistique and Powers hung on but had to settle for scattered exhibition games through the summer.

This summer it looked like another chapter of the same story until a group of men in Schaffer decided to give graduates of their Babe Ruth program an opportunity to compete in an older league. . . . In referring to Schaffer, we actually mean the entire area around Bark River-Harris-Perronville-Wilson, of course. Funds were raised to buy uniforms and equipment and Jerry Butryn, a former player, agreed to coach and manage the team. . . . That made it possible for the Waubung to return to competition this season.

Stirred by reports of the league reorganizing, young players in Cooks indicated an interest in getting into the act this season and Bernard Lund, a former ball player, took steps to organize a team from that area. . . . Phil Hartman, former star athlete at Cooks High School and now a student at Northern Michigan University, agreed to coach the club.

At a final organization meeting this week Cooks was admitted as a fifth member of the Waubung League and plans were set to open the season Sunday. . . . Cooks will be the first week, giving the players and their adult supporters additional time to get their diamond in shape and their equipment purchased. . . . Lund is beating the drums for financial and other assistance in the Cooks area. . . . "If anybody has some spare baseball equipment, or feels able to help us with a little cash, we'd sure appreciate it," he stated.

We're happy to see the Waubung back on its feet and headed for a healthy season. . . . It's proof that interest in this type of sport is not dead in the area. . . . And it's a credit to such men as Bob Smith of Powers, Al Erickson of Escanaba, Cliff Lambert, Jack King and Oliver Rehn of Manistique, as well as the Cooks and Schaffer people, who are willing to devote their time and effort to help provide a baseball program for the young men of their communities.

Goalby Loses Temper, Tied For Buick Open Lead By Tommy Aaron

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (AP)—Long driving Bob Goalby, his disposition as changeable as the thunderstorms which swirled over Warwick Hills Golf Club Friday, shared the halfway lead in the $100,000 Buick Open with Tommy Aaron.

The chunky Palm Beach, Calif. pro showed flashes of his old temper Friday as he fired a 73-one over par—for a 142 total that left him in a tie with Aaron whose hot putter kept him in contention for the lead.

Goalby led the first round with a three-under-par 69 over Warwick Hills, 7,126 yards. He was intent on building that lead as he went out in a two-under-par 34 Friday.

Then disaster struck. His short game fell to pieces, and soon he was arguing with the fans and disciplining his caddy as well.

A one-hour delay caused by thunderstorms and subsequent electrical storms failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the nearly 12,000 spectators who tramped over the soggy fairways.

Goalby appeared to be in the driver's seat until he tackled the seventh hole on his incoming nine after playing the back nine first.

He pushed his second shot to the back fringe of the green, came out badly and three-putted after rebuking the crowd for not standing still.

On the eighth, he chided his caddy for not staying close enough to him. On the ninth he appeared to be headed for further trap troubles. But Lady Luck smiled on him as he dropped a backdoor, fast-rising, 12-foot putt to salvage a tie for the lead.

At one time last year, I had certain things on my mind," Griffith said. "Then the club turned around and started winning. I think there has been an accumulation of things. There were things that should have been done that weren't done."

Mele took his ouster calmly, and expressed no bitterness. "Even though I've been fired, I have nothing but respect and admiration for Calvin," he said. "I've always been treated fairly by him."

The deposed manager said he has no plans for the rest of the season.

Mele said his six-year record with the Twins "speaks for itself." Under Mele, who took over the Twins' field reins on June 23, 1961, when Griffith

Goalby was in the midst of a news conference, expressing confidence he could win the tournament if his game stayed as hot as it was in the opening two rounds, when it was announced that Aaron, from Callo-way Gardens, Ga., had tied him for the lead.

Aaron expressed surprise that he was a co-leader. "I hit some bad drives on the back nine and was treed twice so I figure I had a pretty lucky day," he said. He capped his performance with a dramatic 15-foot birdie putt on the 18th to gain his spot as co-leader.

Mele Canned By Griffith

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Calvin Griffith dumped Sam Mele as manager of his Minnesota Twins Friday and thrust on the shoulders of veteran minor league manager Cal Ermer the task of rallying the sputtering American League club for a run at the pennant.

"I still think this team can win the pennant," Griffith said. "I'm not going to criticize Mele; he's done a great job. But I think it was time for a change, and I think new leadership can provide the spark to get us going."

Although the move caught Twins players and fans alike by surprise, Griffith said he had been considering a change since mid-season last year. And the Griffith organization had eyed Ermer as managerial timber for more than 20 years.

"At one time last year, I had certain things on my mind," Griffith said. "Then the club turned around and started winning. I think there has been an accumulation of things. There were things that should have been done that weren't done."

Mele took his ouster calmly, and expressed no bitterness. "Even though I've been fired, I have nothing but respect and admiration for Calvin," he said. "I've always been treated fairly by him."

The deposed manager said he has no plans for the rest of the season.

Mele said his six-year record with the Twins "speaks for itself." Under Mele, who took over the Twins' field reins on June 23, 1961, when Griffith

Copper Country Native Turns In Three-Hitter

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—George Brunet doesn't understand the reason for his hex over the Detroit Tigers.

And what the Tiger's don't understand is why they're the only team in the American League Brunt has been able to beat this season.

"The way he pitches against us, he should be able to beat anybody," said Detroit manager Mayo Smith Friday night, after Brunet hurled a three-hitter for the California Angels—breaking his nine-game losing streak with a 4-0 victory.

Brunet hadn't tasted victory in two months, or since he conquered the Tigers 4-2 in the season opener here April 11.

"This," said Angel manager, Bill Rigney, "has to be as good as George is capable of pitching," after watching the veteran left-hander keep the Tigers from advancing a runner past first base.

Brunet walked one, struck out eight and helped the Angels emerge from the American League cellar. This was their third straight victory.

"I know they (the Tigers) are a hard-hitting team—they're leading the league, aren't they?" said Brunet. "I don't begin to understand why I've done so well against them."

Brunet's lifetime record against Detroit is 8-2.

Don Mincher, Jose Cardenal, Bob Knoop and Jimmy Hall provided Brunet 2-9 strong support in the series opener as the Angels pounded Denny McLain 6-7 and Larry Sherry for eight hits.

Knoop doubled home a run in the second inning. Hall singled home another in the third and Mincher clouted a two-run homer in the fifth. It was his 11th of the season.

Cardenal hit two singles, scored twice and extended his batting streak to 10 games. One element of punch the Tigers lacked was Jim Northrup.

The center fielder came down with the mumps and was ordered to return to Detroit. Mickey Stanley replaced Northrup in the lineup.

"Both my kids had the mumps the last couple of weeks," said Northrup, fifth best hitter in the American League, with a .312 average.

Smith said Northrup probably will rejoin the team in Minnesota Monday or Tuesday.

The Tigers tonight sent Earl Wilson (8-4) against Nick Wille (0-2) at Anaheim.

Waubung League Openers Sunday

First games of the season in the Waubung Baseball League will be played Sunday at Manistique and Schaffer.

The league, for boys through 18 years of age based on American Legion baseball regulations, is back in operation this summer after a year's lapse because of lack of teams.

The Waubung League is the oldest in the Upper Peninsula for young ball players, having operated continually since 1947 up to last year.

Cooks was a late addition to the league this season, joining Escanaba, Manistique, Powers and Schaffer. Bernard Lund was largely responsible for the organization of the Cooks team and its entry in the league.

In Sunday's season opener, starting at 2, the defending champion Esky Cubs will invade Manistique and Powers will play at Schaffer.

New Twins Manager Handed Lesson On American League Facts Of Life

By The Associated Press

The Baltimore Orioles wasted no time teaching Cal Ermer the facts of American League life.

Ermer, the new manager of the Minnesota Twins, climbed into a uniform only 20 minutes before the game time Friday night and then watched the Twins absorb an 11-2 loss at the hands of the Orioles.

Frank Robinson slammed a three-run homer, his 17th of the year, and Boog Powell had a three-run shot as Baltimore jolted four Minnesota pitchers for 14 hits.

In other American League action, Kansas City shut out Cleveland twice, 2-0 and 6-0; Boston nipped Washington 8-7; New York pushed a run across in the 10th inning to edge Chicago 2-1 and California blanked Detroit 4-0.

In the National League, Chicago topped New York 6-5; Pittsburgh pounded Philadelphia 16-1; Atlanta dropped San Francisco 5-3; Cincinnati outslugged Houston 10-7 and St. Louis edged Los Angeles 3-2.

Ermer was named manager of the floundering Twins Friday afternoon after President Cal Griffith dismissed Sam Mele. He flew in from Denver, where he had managed the Twins' Pacific Coast League team for the last 2 1/2 years, and made it in time for Friday night's game.

He had hardly found a spot for himself in the Minnesota dugout before the Orioles hopped on Dean Chance for three unearned runs in the first inning.

Robinson doubled home a run in the fifth and then put the game out of reach with his three-run homer in the sixth. Powell's three-run shot in the eighth climaxed the Orioles' assault.

Mo' Drabowsky, who struck out Bob Allison with the bases loaded, choking off a Twins' threat in the fifth, worked 4 2/3 innings of scoreless relief for his fifth straight victory. Chance, 9-3, was the loser.

Chuck Dobson and Jim (Catfish) Hunter, hung the double shutout on the Indians for Kansas City.

Dobson outduelled Steve Hargan, who allowed only two hits, in the opener. Hargan had pitched six hitless innings before Ramon Webster's leadoff triple broke the spell in the seventh. Two outs later, Jim Gosger homered, accounting for both Kansas City runs.

The A's routed Sam McDowell with a six-run first inning in the nightcap and Hunter breezed with a six-hitter. The big blow for Kansas City was rookie

Revived Pirates Making Noise At Bat And Plate

By The Associated Press

The Pittsburgh Pirates are closed mouthed about their closed door meeting Wednesday, but since then they've been making plenty of noise at bat and on the mound.

It rose to a crescendo Friday night when the revived Pirates exploded for 23 hits as they punished Philadelphia 16-1 for their second straight victory since the locker room get-together.

They were not the only ones with plenty to say at bat Friday night. The National League leading Cincinnati Reds, a noisy bunch all season, hammered Houston 10-7 with six runs in the seventh inning.

On a more quiet note, St. Louis edged Los Angeles 3-2, Atlanta beat San Francisco 5-3 and the Chicago Cubs slipped by the New York Mets 6-5.

In the American League, Boston outslugged Washington 8-7, the New York Yankees tripped the Chicago White Sox 2-1 in 10 innings, Baltimore clobbered Minnesota 11-2, Kansas City blanked Cleveland 2-0 and 6-0, and Detroit lost to California 4-0.

The roaring Pirates, the best hitting team in the league in 1966, were a meek bunch until their players-only meeting. They had lost five of seven games, stood only three games over .500 and had fallen to fourth place after being picked by many to win the pennant.

With Manager Harry Walker and the coaching staff omitted, the Pirates, who held a similar caucus two years ago and a few more last season, presumably met to talk over their problems and bring their gripes into the open.

The Pirates managed eight hits and three runs that night and Tommie Sick hurled a shutout at the Met. . . . The real noise was heard Friday night.

Every starter except pitcher Billy O'Dell, who scattered eight hits for his fifth victory in seven decisions, had at least two hits. Manny Mota and Gene Alley each had four.

Bill Mazeroski drove in four runs with two singles and a sacrifice fly and Willie Stargell, Alley and Jerry May accounted for three each as the Pirates slugged 20 singles, one double and two triples.

The Reds did not get as many hits—only 14—but three of them were homers by Pete Rose, Deron Johnson and Don Pavletich for six runs in the seventh inning that overcame a 7-4 deficit.

Rose's blast came with two on and tied the score. After Tony Perez doubled, Johnson and Pavletich spoke up.

Pavletich had doubled home two earlier runs and Rose and Perez singled in the others.

Pitcher Dick Hughes hushed Los Angeles with a run-scoring single in the seventh inning that broke a 2-2 deadlock. The lanky right-hander also scattered seven hits before leaving in the ninth.

Orlando Cepeda had an inside-the-park homer for one Cardinal run.

Joe Torre snapped a 1-1 tie with a run-scoring single that put Atlanta ahead in the sixth inning and Dennis Menke followed with a clinching homer off loser Mike McCormick.

Artist Jailed In Art Theft

DETROIT (AP) — A 20-year-old Roseville artist was in the Wayne County Jail today facing charges of receiving and concealing goods stolen from the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Ronald Bieri, accused of receiving and concealing a $5,000 sculpture by the American artist Alexander Calder, stood mute at his arraignment Friday in Detroit Recorder's Court.

A plea of innocent was entered and Judge Joseph E. Maher remanded him to jail in lieu of $2,000 bond.

The Calder sculpture was found Thursday in a trash can at the institute by Willis F. Woods, the director. Woods also found Bieri in the men's room, where he was arrested, police said.

Police said Bieri had earlier placed calls to museum officials offering to ransom the Calder piece and two other works that had been stolen from the museum.

Artist Jailed In Art Theft

DETROIT (AP) — A 20-year-old Roseville artist was in the Wayne County Jail today facing charges of receiving and concealing goods stolen from the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Ronald Bieri, accused of receiving and concealing a $5,000 sculpture by the American artist Alexander Calder, stood mute at his arraignment Friday in Detroit Recorder's Court.

A plea of innocent was entered and Judge Joseph E. Maher remanded him to jail in lieu of $2,000 bond.

The Calder sculpture was found Thursday in a trash can at the institute by Willis F. Woods, the director. Woods also found Bieri in the men's room, where he was arrested, police said.

Police said Bieri had earlier placed calls to museum officials offering to ransom the Calder piece and two other works that had been stolen from the museum.

Heart Attacks Response To Lifetime Preparation

The difficulties that physicians have putting medical knowledge to work effectively in the face of patients' pleasant habit was illustrated at the banquet session of the Upper Peninsula Medical Society meeting at the House of Ludington Friday night.

Dr. Richard C. Bates, Lansing internist, spoke on "How to Have a Heart Attack," to the physicians and their wives after they had been served a fine steak dinner and said that to have a heart attack "eat a lot of thick juicy steaks and prime ribs of beef well marbled with fat. This kind of diet will make you fat and that's a useful thing. Thin people have almost as many heart attacks as fat people, but the fat people are far more inclined to have the fatal variety."

How To Die

Dr. Bates was introduced by his University of Michigan Medical School classmate, Dr. James Dehlin of Gladstone, and he cast his prescription for a heart attack in a humorous way, but accompanied by the deadly statistics of coronary disease in America.

Dr. Bates said, tongue-in-cheek, that to have a heart attack, people should pick their ancestors (heredity is very important), be a man (six men have heart attacks to one woman), living in a city (city people have more coronary trouble than country people), live in the United States (which has more heart attacks than any other country), and make a lot of money while sitting behind a desk, because the rich have more heart attacks than the poor and the sedentary have more than the active.

Diet Is Critical

"Eat a lot of meat and dairy products," suggested Dr. Bates if you want a heart attack (because their fat contributes to the cholesterol that plugs up the arteries of the heart), be fat, smoke cigarettes, (two pack a day smokers have over three times as many heart attacks as non-smokers) and never exercise. (We used to think exercise causes heart attacks and now we think it opens up new arteries in the heart to replace the ones closed by cholesterol.)

There's a popular belief that the tremendous increase in heart attacks in America is due to tensions. "Actually," said Dr. Bates "in these days of the 40-hour week, twice-a-day coffee breaks, cradle-to-grave security, it's doubtful if mankind ever had such a soft, relaxed existence in the history of the world. Our ancestors in this country had to take their riffs with them when they went to the barn, to be sure they'd get back to the house with their scalps on — that's tension!"

Close Meet Today

But as a British doctor said, it's nicer to believe that stress caused a heart attack than to be told it's due to gluttony and physical laziness.

"It takes 45 years to bring on this disease," said Dr. Bates "and what you're doing in the last 15 minutes is really of very little importance. The important thing, if you want a heart attack, is to be as sedentary as possible throughout those 45 years so that you don't encourage a better blood supply for your heart."

The Medical Society was to close its three-day convention at noon today with lunch at the House of Ludington after election of officers.

Tech To Add Teacher Course In Math, Science

HOUGHTON — Michigan Tech's University's Board of Control, in a meeting here Friday (June 9), authorized the University's administration to "establish education courses for the training of teachers in science and mathematics as soon as practicable and feasible."

The board, governing body for Michigan Tech, took this action following recommendations made by the university senate. The senate's Science Teacher Education Committee suggested implementation of secondary school teacher training as a logical development for Tech and that the curriculum include education courses to meet State Department of Education requirements.

MTU is the only state supported university in Michigan which does not have an education program in at least one area, leading to teacher certification.

Piggish Pelican

In proportion to its weight, the pelican is the champion eater of the animal world. A pelican weighing only 18 pounds consumes four pounds of fish a day, or 222 pounds of food per 1,000 pounds. Pigs, on the other hand, consume only about 40 pounds of food per 1,000 pounds of weight.

PAT Flies Two Gov.'s Today

Romney is in the course of a pre-presidential campaign visit to Wisconsin. The PAT Cerrisa 402 picked up Governor Romney in Milwaukee at 10:10 a. m. and flew him to Appleton for a speaking appearance. It then flew to Madison to pick up Governor Knowles and take him to Appleton to join the Romney party.

It was to fly the Governors to Austin Strubel Airport at Green Bay, arriving at 1 p. m. After Romney's Green Bay appearance, a major stand in his tour, he will be flown by PAT with his party into Pontiac tonight.
